HELLO YOU HAPPY BON VOYAGERS!

Well mates of the ship, here we are out on the ocean blue, alone together at last. It was hell but we made it, even if we did get underway in a state eight sea. The women have been left on the pier, teary eyed and perhaps a little bit sore, but duty has called and we, like the brave sea farers we are, have answered. We have put on our "Ye GOD!" hats, and what hats there were, and sailed off to do our bit for the great society.

This is the first issue of the SARGO SKUPE, our own newspaper. The SKUPE will come out weekly or weakly and we hope to bring the tidings from here and there to the best of our ability. Our credo will be simple. We shall keep the SKUPE unclassified and un porny (well not overly porny anyway). There will be a no holds barred - report the news as we see it - the hell with the consequences philosophy.

A SKUPE Scoop box is installed outside the door of the Ship's Office and we beg of you to donate. We want help from anyone willing to give it. Our motto is "put something in the box". We will take poems, jokes, sea stories (true or not), rat fink or write rat stories, or what ever you may care to contribute. About the only thing we don't need dropped in our box is notes telling us where to go - we already know that. Due recognition will be given to all material used or if desired material can be submitted anonymously (that means in secret).

Spelling: We shall probably mispele a lot of words and use a bunch of ungood grammer but don't worry - we don't give a damn. If you want to red pencil each issue have a ball but don't try to educate us - it's too late in life.

Another thing - don't sin! The avenger will be watching you, and you will make the paper. Backbighting, putting the word out on, and snitching on your shipmate will be common practice for that rich reporter the Avenger.

Fox will be included in the SKUPE when available and if we don't have any news for you we'll just make some up.

Some of the regular features are introduced in this issue, including SARGO SYMBOLIC SEX; CLASSIFIED ADDS; THE XO CORNER; THINGS WE'VE HEARD; THIS SONG IS DEDICATED TO; PUZZELS FOR NUKES; THE POEM OF THE WEEK; HAVE YOU HEARD THIS ONE; UNIDENTIFIABLE CONTACT OF THE WEEK; ETC. and so on. If you come up with a good idea feel free. It's a nice way to feel.

Aloha for now.....

RR

There is no news this week. So we made up some.....

FLASH! News just released from the Pentagon. The Navy Department to be partially eliminated by Mid 1969.

The Washington D.C. Manpower Survey Team of the Navy will apply it's RAPE program to all installations of the Navy by mid-summer, 1969, according to informed sources. RAPE is the designation for the phaseout of many of these departments in the activities (although no official announcement has been made) and stands for Retire All Personnel Early.) Following the announcement of the Navy's reassignment, team officials disclosed that the RAPE program will begin immediately.

Employees who are RAPED will have an opportunity to seek other employment. Those who decline to seek other employment will be able to request a review of their records before discharge. This phase of the cut-back is dubbed (Survey of Capabilities of Retired Early Workers) or SCREW

One last chance was promised by the Navy for employees who have been RAPED or SCREWED. They may appeal for final review, SHAFT (Study by Higher Authority Following Termination).

The official explanation is that employees who are RAPED may be allowed only one additional SCREWING, but may request the SHAFT as many times as they desire.....

More News right off the wire.....

Riots are still going on in the Vassar Dormitory where 200 male college students are having a laydown strike against discrimination against them.....

A tornado ripped through Dirtywater, Texas today making a shambles of the small town. It completely destroyed the town's main building which was a brothel. The Texas Governor has declared the area under martial law until 60 million dollars in disaster funds can be appropriated to replace the destroyed building.....

Lotta BooBoos, one of the silent screen stars from the days of old has just announced her marriage to young Mickey Stud, star pitcher for the New York Yankees horseshoe pitching team. Miss BooBoos, although 73 years old, still retains the qualities that made her a great star, namely a pair of 48's. When asked to comment Mickey Stud simply grinned and said "Heck - it's bettern a horse ain't it." .....

Hildegard Bouregarde SMITH, a 7 month pregnant housewife from Lafette Tennessee today was struck by a truck while crossing the street and was almost knocked down.....

POEM OF THE WEEK

This weeks poem is dedicated to the nuky poos. They are cordially invited to retaliate by sending forward a nose coner ditty for next week. The title of this weeks poem is:

"I dreamed I'd dropped my load"

I went to sleep the other night
And everything seemed quite all right
But sometime in the moring - I guess about four
I woke up screaming - I'd dremp I'd dropped my core

I dreampt that I had dropped it
I dremp I'd lost my load
I dremp that I had lost my steam
It was an awful dream

I lay there in a panic - not knowing what to do
You see I am not really a qualified nuky poo
Oh I can handle the EPCP and the lower level too
But I'd never dropped the load before so I didn't know what to do

I dreampt that I had really dropped it
I dremp I'd lost my power
So I did what any nuke would do
I got up and took a cold shower

BRAIN TEASER

A direct result of todays increased time for leisure pursuits has been the formation of The Hobby Club, consisting to date of eight members: Louise, Martha, Nancy, Ophelia, Patrick, Quentin, Ronald, and Stanley. As it happens, the Club includes two married couples - who, it must be admitted, look hopefully for signs of developing romances among the other members. At any rate - based on the four clues below, can you tell who is married to whom and the specific hobby of each of the eight members?

1. Both the single men collect stamps, as does Ronalds wife. One of the men smokes a pipe and two smoke cigaretts.
2. Both Louise's husband and Nancy are bird-watchers and Patrick is a hunter.
3. Quentin's wife collects seashells, while his special interest is really raising orchids.
4. Martha is an amatuer landscape painter.

The first one who comes up with the answer will win a small prise. If it is too tough for you the answer will be printed in the next SKUPE.

Here is some hot dope! Never take cold dope as it may have harmful effects upon your brain.

IT HAS BEEN DECLARED THE CRUISE OF THE HATS AND THERE CERTAINLY IS A LOVELY CROP OF HATS AMONG US. SOME OF THE MORE UNBELIEVABLE ONES ARE AS FOLLOWS:

SMOKEY (The Bear) has a real genuine first rate forest fire hat. Is it true you used to be a Mountry? If so, what did you mount?

SHUHART has a most unusual hairpeice. It looks very much like a Yule Brenner hair piece. It should feel real sexy in a week or two. Henceforth - Skinhead SHUHART.

HATSVILLE

MASSAD - the flattop hat off the AUSIE carrier is really cool. What did you give the Ausies for it?

BOTT, the old California farm boy has an old straw hat that smells just like a barn, or is it BOTT that smells like a barn?

LT OLSON's baseball cap is probably about the oldest cap on board. He's been wearing it ever since he played in the Little League.

Tinkerbell SCOTTY with his beanie is real cute. I wouldn't advise him to go back aft if he values his virginity.

CONTI's steamin hat just fits his head, poor hat!

SINGLETON patton leather old time sailing hat is positively wierd. Are you expecting foul weather J?

Charly Brown WALKER's hat comes right out of a Penuts Comic strip. But then so does WALKER.

BATKA's cowboy hat has a lot to offer, if one is going to chase cows. PENN's hardhat appeared to be most functional.

And the great SEAPIG undoubtedly wrestled his hat away from a genuine SEAPIG. He damm near didn't get it.

SARRO's hatty looked like something right out of Greenwich village. We tripped out just looking at it.

PETERS hat crusades against the Red Barron.

Another country boy - DIMOCK sports a sporty straw hat.

RR MAHONEY has a little Bond Street special.

DESHAZO's steamin hat is all bent up in front to match his face.

SIMERAL has a photographers hat full of mixed hues like puce and burgandy and robins egg white. Ughh.

FLIPPER has a nice white cooks hat. Not very original but cute.

IT DEMPSEY didn't bother to bring a hat. His head is wierd enough without one.

There are probably many that we missed but none of them would be able to Top Smokey the Bear so we'll quite while we're ahead.

THIS SONG IS DEDICATED TO

MEHOCHKO

(Sung to the tune of I'm Gonna Sit Right Down and Right Myself a Letter)

I'm gonna sit right down and have myself a double
I'm gonna toss it down right away
I don't even care if I get into trouble
I'm gonna get stoned to the gills today

I'm gonna drink myself to sleep
I'm gonna drink until I'm stoned
A lot of booze in the belly
Until I'm drunk and smelly

I'm gonna sit right down and get smashed all the way
Because I am going to sea today
I'm gonna sit right down and get myself potted
I'm gonna drink until my mind is rotted

When I pass out I'm sure they'll take me back
And they'll lower me into the boat
And they will stick me into my sack
And I will lay there in my rack

And I will barrf and and I will caught
Until we get under way.....

The little girl who always wanted to be treated like her mother. One night her father told her to go to bed. She said "I will dad - if you will tuck me in like you do momma." The father, wanting her out of his hair agreed and tucked her in. She said "daddy, would you kiss me a little like you do momma." The father kissed her on the cheek goodnight. The little girl looked up at him and said very sweetly, "would you whisper in my ear like you do momma's daddy?" The father leaned over and went psst psst psst in her ear and she looked up at him sweetly and said "not tonight dear - I'm too tired!"

It seems there was this lad of the deep South who packed his gear and headed North to seek his fortune. Upon arriving in NYC he was very impressed with the abundance of jobs available and so he called his old buddy up to tell him about it. "Hey man - ye ain't gonna believ it but man there is money growin on trees up heah! Man - its fallen on the sidewalk - just waitin to be picked up by some slick cat like you is." His buddy, being one of the true Southern gentlemen packed himself a big bag of fried chicken, some cornbread, sold his shack and stuck out for the b-g city. He arrived in New York late one night, penniless, with only the clothes on his back. As he walked out of the bus station he spotted a fifty dollar bill lying on the sidewalk. He looked at it and smiled. "Shucks man I'll come back and pick it up tomorrow - if yo thinks I'm gonna work in my first day in town you got another think comin."

The little Catholic boy who used to sleep all the time in class. The irrate Nun would constantly call on little Tommy for answers to questions - and the outstanding scholar would somehow come up with the right answer. This upset the nun to no end. Well, it happened, she caught him sleeping and asked him a question (where the answer was Jesus Christ). The lad sitting behind him jabbed him in the side with his pencil whereas Tommy (woken out of a sound sleep) popped up with a loud "Jesus Christ!" This had about brought the sister to her ends with Tommy. She decided that she was really going to fix him the next time she caught him sleeping. Sure enough, Tommy soon fell asleep again. The sister asked, "Tommy; what would you do if you were a good Catholic mother, with 14 children, and, and your husband came home from work one day and wanted to have sexual intercourse with you?" The lad sitting behind Tommy again jabbed him with his pencil. The shocked Tommy jumped up and said, "Jesus Christ, If you poke me with that thing one more time, I'll rap it around your neck!"
