

USS SARGO HIRSHUTE ELEMINTATIONS - FRIDAY, 23 AUGUST 1968

Since the dawn of human history mankind has been associated with HAIR. Tonight, in the tradition of our hairy ancestors, the SARGO's panel of bush experts will endeavor to pick the tresses that thrill them in the following categories:

- THE SCRAGGIEST: Who turns stomachs with his face the most
- NEATEST: Whose ringlets produce sighs of rapture the most
- LONGEST: Whose masculinety muscles have manufactured the most
- VAN DYCK: Who looks the most like he could sell fried chicken
- BUSHIEST: What crop has grown the wildest
- THE "TICKLER": Who has the obscenest beard
- THE LEAST: Whose face is the most virgin looking
- MOST COLORFUL: Whose plumage is the most Peacockiest

Each contestant will be called in front of the panel of judges and asked what category from the above choices they wish to be entered in. Upon picking a category they will be asked to make a short statement regarding why they think their beard should win that particular category (and why they should be allowed to keep their beard).

Each candidate will be judged on a ten point basis in their respective category. Judges will confer and award each candidate a maximum of ten points depending on the points he deserves in his particular category.

The Royale Barber will be available to assist the judges, in the event they are so repelled by the prickles of some obviously indecent tufts.

P-A-N-E-L O-F J-U-D-G-E-S

- CAPTAIN: Head face judge
- COB: Head chin and moustache judge
- CONTI: Head necking judge
- CHIEF ANDONE: Bearded judge (can be outruled by any other judge - in order to prevent obvious partiality).